SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

COUNT ONE

(Conspiracy to Participate in Racketeering Enterprise)

Introduction

1. The Black Guerilla Family ("BGF"), also known as Jamaa (the Swahili word for family), or J for short, is a nationwide gang operating in prisons and on the streets of Baltimore, Maryland and other major cities throughout the United States. Founded in California in the 1960s, BGF appeared in the Maryland correctional system in the 1990s. In the mid-2000s, it became the dominant prison gang at the Baltimore City Detention Center and related prison facilities. BGF members frequently brought the gang ideology to the streets when released, thereby fueling the spread of BGF outside the correctional system. Although still a prison gang, BGF is increasingly involved in criminal activity on the streets of Baltimore, including murder, robbery, extortion, narcotics trafficking, obstruction of justice, and witness intimidation.

2. Outside the prison system, the membership of BGF is organized into units known as "regimes" or "bubbles" that correspond to particular regions or neighborhoods in Baltimore City. These units are organized hierarchically, with a "Commander" or "C" and various subordinates, including a "Lieutenant Commander" or "LTC"; Ministers of Finance, Defense, Justice, and Education; a Sergeant of Arms; and a Field Marshal. Many of these subordinates have specialized functions, such as collecting dues, planning acts of violence against rival gangs or drug traffickers, implementing disciplinary measures, educating members about the gang's history and rules, or acquiring weapons for the regime. The remaining members of the unit are designated as "in the field," and are responsible for carrying out the directives of the regime.

3. A "Bushman," or "BM" for short, is a high-ranking, senior BGF member. BMs oversee the activities of multiple regimes within their respective areas of the city. BGF members often refer to BMs as being "in the Bush." Whereas a Commander is responsible for running his particular regime, a BM might control multiple regime Commanders in the BGF hierarchy.

4. At all times relevant to this Superseding Indictment, BGF members were required to follow a set of rules, sometimes referred to as the "22s and 33s." These were the rules by which all BGF members were governed, including, for example, a rule against cooperating with law enforcement or "snitching"; a rule against revealing the secrets of the gang; a rule against stealing from the gang; and a rule requiring the payment of dues. BGF members who violated this code of conduct or who disobeyed an order from a superior were subject to disciplinary measures called "sanctions," which included fines, physical beatings, and death. Snitching was considered one of the most serious violations, and was punishable by death if there was "paperwork" proving the violation. "Paperwork" normally consisted of court documents such as a search warrant affidavit or trial transcript.

5. At all times relevant to this Superseding Indictment, BGF members joined the gang by obtaining a "sponsor" from within the gang who would educate the prospective member (sometimes referred to as a "fox") about the gang's history, code of conduct, and oath. In order to gain admission to the gang, prospective members were required to learn the 22s and 33s and recite the BGF oath from memory. The BGF oath, sometimes referred to as the "two S's and three I's," is as follows: "Should I ever be untrue and forsake the chosen few, this oath shall kill me; should I ever become lax in discipline in times of strife or neglect my brothers, this oath shall kill me; if I ever sought to do harm or allow harm to come to my brothers, this oath shall kill me; if at any time I refuse or deny to give assistance to this oath or reject my brother, this oath shall kill me; if I ever reveal the sworn secrecy of this oath, this oath shall kill me.”

6. The organization known today as the BGF Greenmount Regime is a violent regime, or “bubble,” of BGF. During the early years in which it operated, the gang consisted of mostly younger individuals, many of whom lived in the 2200, 2300, and 2400 blocks of Barclay Street and Guilford Avenue. During this time period, the organization called itself the Young Guerilla Family, or YGF.

7. Between mid-2005 and approximately mid-2007, YGF members sold various controlled substances, including cocaine, cocaine base, heroin, oxycodone, ecstasy and marijuana, throughout the Greenmount Avenue corridor. They also committed murders, shootings, and armed robberies, both inside and outside their neighborhood.

8. By mid-2007, senior BGF leaders, including Bushmen, became concerned that YGF members were recklessly engaging in violence, thereby subjecting their BGF counterparts to unwanted scrutiny from law enforcement. To address this concern, BGF’s leadership issued an ultimatum: YGF and its members could either “shut down,” or, alternatively, they could embrace BGF’s rules and structure by becoming full-fledged members of the gang.

9. Following this ultimatum, nearly all YGF members took the BGF oath, resulting in a merger between the affiliated gangs. The merger had little effect, however, on the structure and leadership of YGF, and it did nothing to stem the violence committed by members of the gang. Following the merger, members of the BGF Greenmount Regime continued distributing narcotics and committing robberies, both armed and unarmed, to raise internal funds. They also committed murders, shootings, and assaults to protect their territory from rival gangs and drug dealers; to intimidate, and in some cases eliminate, witnesses to their criminal activity; and to maintain discipline and order within the gang.

10. Over time, the BGF Greenmount Regime gradually assumed control over several dozen city blocks in the area of Greenmount Cemetery. By mid-2013, the gang controlled the roughly rectangular area bordered by Greenmount Avenue to the east; Guilford Avenue to the west; 25th Street to the north; and Federal Street to the south, as well as certain offshoots east of Greenmount Avenue, including Mund Park and Cokesbury Avenue.

11. At all times relevant to this Superseding Indictment, the following defendants, among others, were members and associates of the organization known today as the BGF Greenmount regime:

The Racketeering Enterprise

12. At all times relevant to this Superseding Indictment, the organization known today as the BGF Greenmount Regime, including its leadership, members, and associates, constituted an "enterprise" as defined in Section 1961(4) of Title 18, United States Code, that is, a group of individuals associated in fact that engaged in, and the activities of which affected, interstate and foreign commerce. The enterprise constitutes an ongoing organization whose members function as a continuing unit for a common purpose of achieving the objectives of the enterprise.

Purposes of the Enterprise

13. Among the purposes of the enterprise were the following:

- a. Enriching the leaders, members, and associates of the enterprise through the distribution of controlled substances, robbery, and the use of threats, intimidation, and violence, including but not limited to acts of murder and retaliation against witnesses;
- b. Promoting and enhancing the enterprise and its members' and associates' activities;
- c. Preserving and protecting the power, territory, operations, and proceeds of the enterprise through the distribution of controlled substances, robbery, and the use of threats, intimidation, and violence, including acts of murder, witness retaliation, and assaults;
- d. Preserving and protecting the enterprise and its leaders by keeping its members and associates from cooperating with law enforcement through intimidation, violence, and threats of violence;
- e. Providing financial support and information to members, including those who were incarcerated for committing acts of violence or other offenses;
- f. Providing assistance to other gang members who committed crimes for and on behalf of the gang in order to hinder, obstruct, and prevent law enforcement officers from identifying, apprehending, and punishing the offender; and

g. Keeping victims and witnesses in fear of the enterprise and in fear of its leaders, members, and associates through acts of violence and threats of violence.

The Racketeering Conspiracy

14. Beginning in or about 2005 and continuing until on or about the date of this Superseding Indictment, in the District of Maryland, and elsewhere, the defendants,

GERALD THOMAS JOHNSON,
a/k/a "Geezy," a/k/a "Gzy Tha Prince,"

a/k/a "Shike White," a/k/a "Wes," DAVID ALBERT HUNTER,

NORMAN TYRONE HANDY,
a/k/a "Lil Norm," a/k/a "Norm," and MARQUISE MCCANTS,
a/k/a "Digga,"

each being a person employed by and associated with the organization known today as the BGF Greenmount Regime, an enterprise, which engaged in, and the activities of which affected, interstate and foreign commerce, together with each other and with other persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, did knowingly, intentionally, and unlawfully combine, conspire, confederate, and agree to violate Section 1962(c) of Title 18, United States Code, that is, to conduct and participate, directly and indirectly, in the conduct of the enterprise's affairs through a pattern of racketeering activity, as defined in Sections 1961(1) and (5) of Title 18, United States Code, which pattern of racketeering activity consisted of multiple acts involving:

- a. Murder, chargeable under Md. Code Ann., Crim. Law §§ 2-201, 2-204, 2-205, and 2-206, and the Common Law of Maryland punishable pursuant to Md. Code Ann., Crim. Law §§ 1-201, 1-202, 2-201, 2-204, 2-205, and 2-206 (Maryland Murder);
- b. Robbery, chargeable under Md. Code Ann., Crim. Law §§ 3-402 (Maryland Robbery), 3-403 (Maryland Robbery with a Deadly Weapon), and the Common Law of Maryland;
- c. 21 U.S.C. § 846 (conspiracy to distribute a controlled substance);
- d. 21 U.S.C. § 841 (distribution and possession with intent to distribute a controlled substance);
- e. 18 U.S.C. § 1512 (relating to tampering with a witness, victim, or informant); and
- f. 18 U.S.C. § 1513 (relating to retaliating against a witness, victim, or informant).

Manner and Means of the Racketeering Conspiracy

15. Among the manner and means by which the defendants and their associates achieved the object of the conspiracy were the following:

- a. Members of the BGF Greenmount Regime and their associates employed and used gang-related terminology, symbols, and tattoos. They frequently identified, for example, with the numbers 2-7-6, the alphanumeric characters for BGF; as well as with the name and likeness of George Lester Jackson, a co-founder of BGF.
- b. Members of the BGF Greenmount Regime and their associates attended meetings with other BGF gang members to discuss, among other things, the structure and organization of the gang; past criminal acts; rival gangs and drug traffickers; the arrest or incarceration of BGF members; the enforcement of gang rules and sanctioning of BGF members; the collection of dues; the identities of individuals suspected of cooperating with law enforcement and the proposed actions to be taken against them; plans and agreements regarding the commission of future crimes, including murder, robbery, the distribution of controlled substances, illegal possession of firearms, witness tampering and assault, as well as ways to conceal these crimes from law enforcement.

c. Incarcerated members of the BGF Greenmount Regime and their associates used jail telephones to disseminate information about arrests and releases of members and associates, to publicize the identities of persons believed to be cooperating with law enforcement, and to request money from BGF members and associates who were not incarcerated. Because they knew that jail telephone calls were recorded, members of the BGF Greenmount Regime and their associates often made calls using other inmates' account numbers in an attempt to conceal their identities.

d. Members of the BGF Greenmount Regime and their associates agreed to purchase, maintain, and circulate weapons and firearms for use in criminal activity by BGF members.

e. Members of the BGF Greenmount Regime and their associates used, carried, possessed, brandished, and discharged firearms in connection with the enterprise's illegal activities, including but not limited to murder, attempted murder, and robbery.

f. Members of the BGF Greenmount Regime and their associates used violence, threats of violence, and intimidation to prevent victims and witnesses from cooperating with law enforcement against BGF regarding criminal acts committed in furtherance of the gang.

g. Members of the BGF Greenmount Regime and their associates obstructed justice and harmed, threatened, intimidated, and in some cases murdered witnesses and victims who cooperated with law enforcement against BGF.

h. Members of the BGF Greenmount Regime and their associates distributed and conspired to distribute controlled substances, including but not limited to heroin, cocaine, cocaine base, oxycodone, and marijuana, in the Greenmount Avenue corridor of Baltimore City.

i. Members of the BGF Greenmount Regime and their associates controlled drug territories and generally permitted only BGF members to sell drugs in those territories. Non-BGF members who wished to distribute drugs in those territories were forced to pay a tax or were targeted for violence by BGF members.

j. Members of the BGF Greenmount Regime and their associates paid dues to BGF leaders on a regular basis and were subject to reprisal for failure to do so.

k. Members of the BGF Greenmount Regime and their associates earned money for their enterprise and financed their activities, including the payment of dues, through the distribution of controlled substances and the commission of armed and unarmed robberies.

l. Members of the BGF Greenmount Regime and their associates used cellular telephones to communicate with one another concerning and during the commission of the enterprise's illegal activities.

m. Members of the BGF Greenmount Regime and their associates attempted to conceal the purposes of the acts done in furtherance of the enterprise, and used coded language and other means to avoid detection and apprehension by law enforcement and otherwise to provide security to members and associates of the enterprise.

n. Members of the BGF Greenmount Regime and their associates agreed that acts of violence, including murder, would be committed in order to protect and further the interests of BGF and to impose discipline within the gang.

Overt Acts

16. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to achieve the objective thereof, the defendants and others performed and caused to be performed the following acts, among others, in the District of Maryland and elsewhere:

17. Beginning in approximately 2005 and continuing until early 2007, JOHNSON supplied distribution quantities of cocaine, cocaine base, heroin, and methylenedioxy-methamphetamine (ecstasy) to other YGF members, including FAISON, BONDS, JONES, and HUNTER, who in turn assisted JOHNSON in distributing drugs on the street.

18. Beginning in approximately 2005 and continuing until early 2007, JOHNSON used a residence located at 221 E. 25th Street as a "stash house," where other YGF members, including FAISON, BONDS, and JONES, would store narcotics and package them for distribution.

19. Beginning in approximately 2005 and continuing until early 2007, JOHNSON and other members of YGF, including FAISON, JONES, BONDS, and HUNTER, held gang meetings in the residence located at 221 E. 25th Street.

20. On July 20, 2005, in the 200 block of E. 22nd Street, HUNTER shot and killed Victim D.J. using a .32 caliber revolver belonging to BONDS. After the shooting, HUNTER attempted to return the revolver to BONDS. BONDS initially refused, but later agreed to take the revolver back from HUNTER.

21. On August 19, 2006, in the 300 block of E. 20th Street, HUNTER, a felon, unlawfully possessed a loaded Davis Industries .380 caliber handgun (serial number AP428040).

22. On December 27, 2006, outside the residence located at 221 E. 25th Street, JOHNSON attempted to shoot Victims M.L. and S.C. because he suspected that they had stolen drugs from him.

23. On January 9, 2007, inside the residence located at 221 E. 25th Street, JONES and another YGF member shot and killed Victim G.R. using the same 9mm handgun that JONES had used to shoot a rival drug dealer five days earlier. JOHNSON authorized the killing of Victim G.R. in his capacity as a leader of YGF, both because Victim G.R. was rumored to be cooperating with law enforcement and because JOHNSON believed that Victim G.R. had stolen drugs from him.

24. In the days following Victim G.R.'s murder, JOHNSON told at least one other YGF member that the blood from Victim G.R.'s gunshot wounds looked like "spaghetti sauce."

25. In or about the spring of 2007, FAISON and another YGF member robbed an unidentified male of a Standard Sentinel .22 caliber revolver. On June 8, 2007, FAISON's accomplice unlawfully possessed the revolver (serial number 1419770) in the 300 block of E. 22 ½ Street.

26. In or about mid-2007, JOHNSON and HUNTER participated in meetings with senior BGF members regarding the merger between BGF and YGF.

27. On September 28, 2007, in the 2400 block of Brentwood Avenue, JOHNSON distributed cocaine base to an undercover Baltimore Police Officer.

28. On October 2, 2007, in the 2200 block of Barclay Street, HUNTER, FAISON, and a third individual possessed with intent to distribute cocaine.

29. On October 31, 2007, in the 2400 block of Brentwood Avenue, Victim N.K., a senior BGF member who had helped to facilitate the transition of YGF into BGF, was murdered. Following the murder, BGF members held a candlelight vigil in Victim N.K.'s honor in the area of 25th Street and Brentwood Avenue. During the vigil, a senior BGF member ordered a BGF enforcer to assemble a team to kill H.M. because H.M. was believed to have killed Victim N.K. following a dispute over drug territory near Greenmount Avenue and 25th Street. The BGF enforcer enlisted the assistance of HUNTER, who was carrying a firearm, and two other individuals. As the BGF enforcer, HUNTER, and their accomplices were driving toward H.M.'s reported location with the intent of killing H.M., the order to kill H.M. was rescinded. In the presence of at least one other person, HUNTER expressed disappointment about the order to stand down.

30. On May 9, 2008, in the 2400 block of Greenmount Avenue, MCCANTS and two other individuals assaulted and stabbed Victim J.B.

31. On May 17, 2008, in the 2900 block of Hargrove Alley, MCCANTS and two other individuals assaulted and robbed Victim M.P. at gunpoint.

32. On June 6, 2008, in the 2200 block of Guilford Avenue, BONDS and another BGF member possessed with intent to distribute cocaine and possessed $390 in U.S. currency.

33. On January 7, 2010, in the 2100 block of Barclay Street, FAISON robbed Victim J.P. at gunpoint. While committing the robbery, FAISON stated, "you know what this is—I'm robbing everybody in this neighborhood."

34. On January 7, 2010, in the 2100 block of Barclay Street, FAISON robbed Victim D.S. at gunpoint.

35. On January 7, 2010, in the 2100 block of Barclay Street, FAISON and HANDY robbed Victim E.J. During the robbery, FAISON brandished a firearm and threatened to kill Victim E.J.

36. On August 26, 2010, in the 100 block of Pheasant Drive (located in Elkton, MD) MCCANTS and an accomplice committed an armed home invasion robbery.

37. On June 14, 2011, in the 2400 block of Greenmount Avenue, HUNTER shot and killed Victim H.M. HUNTER killed Victim H.M. as retaliation for Victim H.M.'s murder of Victim N.K. in October 2007, and also because Victim H.M. (who was not a member of BGF) was selling drugs in the area of Greenmount Avenue and 25th Street without paying the requisite "tax" to BGF.

38. Later on June 14, 2011, following HUNTER's murder of Victim H.M., JOHNSON presided over a BGF gang meeting at Mund Park in the 2300 block of Greenmount Avenue.

39. On June 22, 2011, during a voluntary interview with police detectives, HANDY admitted selling drugs to support himself.

40. On January 6, 2012, near the intersection of Eutaw and Lombard Streets, JOHNSON assaulted and robbed Victim M.V. outside The Goddess nightclub.

41. On June 29, 2012, in the 300 block of E. Lanvale Street, HARVEY possessed with intent to distribute cocaine.

42. In or about September 2012, JOHNSON and FAISON directed a BGF member from west Baltimore to conduct an armed robbery of a neighborhood drug dealer.

43. On October 31, 2012, in the 300 block of E. Lanvale Street, FAISON and another BGF member distributed cocaine and possessed $323 in U.S. currency.

44. On November 2, 2012, near the intersection of N. Milton and E. Biddle Streets, HARVEY distributed cocaine and possessed $169 in U.S. currency. After arresting HARVEY and advising him of his Miranda rights, police officers informed him that they had seen him selling drugs on a CCTV camera. HARVEY responded, "Shit, I didn't think those worked. You should put me on America's Dumbest Drug Dealers."

45. On November 29, 2012, BROWN exchanged a series of text messages with a BGF associate, in which he stated that he had just obtained "drugs" and agreed to serve as an intermediary for a drug transaction involving marijuana.

46. On December 6, 2012, BROWN sent a text message to a BGF associate, in which he stated, "the money is in the coke I'm tryin tell u."

47. On December 19, 2012, in the 4800 block of Bowland Avenue, FAISON and another BGF member possessed with intent to distribute marijuana and possessed a loaded Smith & Wesson .45 caliber firearm (serial number TCC1459).

48. Between February and November 2013, JOHNSON regularly paid gang dues and distributed cocaine base to a high-ranking member of BGF.

49. On March 23, 2013, in the 2400 block of Greenmount Avenue, HANDY and another individual robbed Victim M.M. During the robbery, HANDY used a .38 caliber handgun to shoot Victim M.M. in the foot. In or about April 2013, after learning that Victim M.M. had provided information to police officers that led to HANDY's arrest, JOHNSON authorized Victim M.M.'s murder in his capacity as a leader of BGF.

50. On March 31, 2013, BROWN exchanged a series of text messages with another individual, in which BROWN discussed purchasing a firearm for $550 from a third party.

51. On April 3, 2013, JONES exchanged a series of text messages with another individual, in which he agreed to provide that individual with a .380 caliber handgun.

52. On April 6, 2013, BROWN exchanged a series of text messages with another individual, in which he agreed to provide that individual with a quantity of powder cocaine.

53. On April 6, 2013, BROWN exchanged a series of text messages with another individual, in which he agreed to pick up a quantity of marijuana that JOHNSON had instructed the individual to give to BROWN.

54. On April 7, 2013, BROWN exchanged a series of text messages with another individual, in which he agreed to provide that individual with a quantity of heroin and powder cocaine.

55. On April 8, 2013, BROWN exchanged a series of text messages with another individual, in which he agreed to provide that individual with a quantity of heroin.

57. On April 16, 2013, BROWN exchanged a series of text messages with another individual, in which he agreed to provide that individual with .380 caliber ammunition.

58. On April 17, 2013, BROWN exchanged a series of text messages with another individual, in which he agreed to provide that individual with a quantity of heroin.

59. On April 21, 2013, BROWN exchanged a series of text messages with another individual, in which he agreed to provide that individual with a quantity of powder cocaine.

60. On April 22, 2013, BROWN exchanged a series of text messages with another individual, in which he agreed to provide that individual with a quantity of heroin. BROWN further agreed to provide the individual with a quantity of cocaine, with the understanding that the individual would deliver the cocaine to a third party.

61. On April 26, 2013, in a residence located at 1716 Latrobe Street, BROWN and another BGF member possessed with intent to distribute cocaine and heroin. BROWN also possessed paperwork setting forth the rules and constitutions of BGF.

62. On April 30, 2013, BROWN exchanged a series of text messages with another individual, in which he agreed to provide that individual with a quantity of heroin.

63. On May 1, 2013, BROWN exchanged a series of text messages with another individual, in which he agreed to provide that individual with a quantity of heroin.

64. On May 1, 2013, a BGF member stored three handguns—two .357 caliber handguns and one .22 caliber handgun—inside a residence located at 2466 Greenmount Avenue. At the time, the residence was occupied by at least one other BGF member and a BGF associate. Later on May 1, BROWN, took possession of the .22 caliber handgun that his fellow BGF member had left inside the residence.

65. During the early morning hours of May 2, 2013, inside the residence located at 2466 Greenmount Avenue, a BGF member used a cellular telephone belonging to a BGF associate to place an outgoing call to BROWN, in which he informed BROWN that Victim M.M, the individual who had provided information to law enforcement regarding the robbery and shooting committed by BRROWN's half-brother HANDY, was in the area of Cokesbury Avenue.

66. On May 2, 2013, in the 600 block of Cokesbury Avenue, BROWN shot and killed Victim M.M. using a .22 caliber handgun.

67. In the days following Victim M.M.'s murder, BROWN requested assistance from another BGF member in disposing of the .22 caliber handgun that he had used to kill Victim M.M. BROWN told the other BGF member that the handgun was "dirty" because he had used it to shoot a witness who had provided information to law enforcement regarding his half-brother, HANDY.

68. On May 7, 2013, in the 200 block of E. 22nd Street, JONES shot and killed Victim T.W., a BGF member, using a 9 mm handgun as a result of an internal gang dispute.

69. In the days following Victim T.W.'s murder, JONES confronted another individual in the presence of JOHNSON and accused that individual of "snitching." JONES told the individual, in substance, that s/he was lucky that there was no "paperwork" proving that s/he was a "snitch," because otherwise s/he would be in trouble.

70. On May 12, 2013, BROWN exchanged text messages with a BGF associate, in which he agreed to sell the .22 caliber handgun that he had used to shoot Victim M.M. in the head for $250.

71. On May 14, 2013, 12 days after BROWN killed Victim M.M., HANDY participated in a recorded jail call, in which he discussed the charges against him arising from his March 23, 2013 robbery and shooting of Victim M.M. During the jail call, HANDY told the other individual, "ain't no case anyways ... yo is gone anyways ... who are you going against anyways."
